Outfest

Presented by: Outfest

Wednesday – Sunday, July 13 - 17 at 8:30 pm

Outfest, which showcases lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender film images and artistry, is L.A.'s longest running film festival. Since its founding in 1982, Outfest has showcased over 4,200 films for audiences of well over half a million people. Their outdoor screening series Under the Stars at the Ford includes the annual sing-along, a 'must' for festival-goers. Film titles won't be available until June, but Outfest programmers save their funniest and most outrageous films for the Ford.

General Admission

J.A.M. Sessions Monday Nights at 7:00 pm Free!

Get up on the Ford stage this summer!
Every Monday night starting June 13, you can move to the beat or explore a new instrument as you connect with diverse artists and cultures at the Ford's FREE J.A.M. (Jazzed and Motivated) Sessions. Beginning, intermediate and advanced participants are welcome.

June 13

Sengalese Dance & Percussion

Kick-off your Juneteenth celebration with Balle Fette! Master drummer Pape Dethie Sarr Diouf and the Balle Fette Bu Senegal lead participants in Sengalese dance and drumming (drums provided courtesy of BOOM!KLACK! Percussions).

June 20

Bollywood into the Night

Catch the infectious music and joyous dance moves as blue13 dance company members teach Bollywood and Bhangra styles to the music of DJ Sandeep Kumar.

June 27

West Coast Swing

Doug Silton and Pete Green of the popular local Where's Westie events will help you get your West Coast Swing dance steps down. Start off the evening with lessons from the pros. Then show off your new moves for the rest of the night to live music by Brother Yusef, who plays what he coins "Fattback Blues."

- July 11 Flamenco, ¡Ole!
Explore the authentic Southern Spanish art of Flamenco. Choose between learning the intricate, passionate dance steps taught by acclaimed Flamenco dancer Cristina Hall and trying your hands at palmas (Flamenco percussion) led by guitar maestro David Maldonado and YAEL. The end-of-evening jam combines both skills!
- July 25 Sing & Play
Koffeehouse Music is all about providing a platform for local independent musicians to be heard. Aspiring vocalists, come performance ready with your best song (acoustic instruments welcome too), hop up on stage and sing your heart out.
- August 1 Tango, Tango, Tango!
Easily recognized as one of the most sizzling popular dance forms, the Tango has been seducing audiences and dancers alike since the 19th Century. JAMmers will learn authentic Argentine Tango from Gloria and Claudio Otero, accompanied by The Dina Durand Tango trio on piano, guitar and bandoneon. Simmer and smolder the night away.
- August 22 Salsa Dance
Let the artists of the Latin dance-theatre troupe CONTRA-TIEMPO lead you through the intricate footwork basics of Salsa. The rest is up to you and your partner!
- August 29 Bluegrass Open-mic
Discover the joys of a “band scramble,” with the Bluegrass Association of Southern California. Bring your bluegrass instrument and/or your voice and see what happens! Don’t want to perform? No problem, find a seat and enjoy the music!
- Sept 12 Art Circle
Make art as you collaborate with String Theory – an ensemble of musicians and dancers that utilizes invented instruments and sonic sculpture to immerse audiences in astounding performance environments. Your drawings will inspire movement pieces, which will inform the creation of an original piece of music, right on the spot!
- Sept 19 Samoan & Tahitian Dance
Learn the Samoan fire knife dance, without getting hurt! Tui Letuli of Weekend in Polynesia teaches the basics of the dance using practice sticks. You can also learn to tell a story the Tahitian way using chants, dance, beats and rhythms from Tiana Liufau of the internationally renowned Nonosina Polynesia. Co-presented by PAE Live!

2011 Big!World!Fun! Family Series

Saturdays at 10:00 a.m.

Presented by the Ford Theatre Foundation, these one-hour family events are FREE for children under 12.
Adults pay only $5. Reservations are required. Parking is $1. Open Seating.

- July 2 Ballet Folclorico do Brasil
Ballet Folclorico do Brasil has been bringing the explosive movement, inspiring sounds and vibrant colors of Brazil to the Southland, and particularly children, since 1989. Their capoeiristas (who combine martial arts and music), dancers, musicians and authentic costumes express the rich blend of African, Portuguese and indigenous influences that have shaped Brazilian culture. Special guests from Brazil and Australia join in the exuberant celebration.

July 9

AXIS Dance Company

AXIS Dance Company will change the way you think about dance and the possibilities of the human body forever. Founded in 1987, AXIS has pioneered a powerful contemporary dance form called physically integrated dance. AXIS demonstrates its dances, which encompass working with disability, and invites the audience to engage physically in a dance experience.

July 23

Beethoven's Wig

These vocalists set their own lyrics to classical music masterpieces such as Beethoven's Fifth Symphony (most famously, "Beethoven's wig is very big"). Accompanied by string quartet and piano, this multiple Grammy®-nominated group sings its hilarious inventions, from laugh out loud favorites to irreverent selections from its new album.

July 30

Center For Vietnamese Ethnic Culture & Art

Experience the sonic landscape of Vietnam as musicians of the Center for Vietnamese Ethnic Culture & Art create sounds from 3,500-year-old stones brought from their homeland. Traditional dances and songs round out the portrait of this captivating culture.

August 6

Linda Tillery and the Cultural Heritage Choir

Prepare yourself for the breathtaking experience of The Cultural Heritage Choir. Strongly connected to its West African and Caribbean origins, the choir's music is rooted in the deep south. This Grammy®-nominated, percussion driven vocal ensemble uses stick, song, dance and story to transport the audience to a time when American popular music was just beginning to evolve.

August 13

Grandeza Mexicana Folk Ballet Company

Let colorful costumes and exuberant movement transport you to Mexico. Grandeza Mexicana, L.A.'s premier folklorico dance company, brings to life the rich and distinct traditions of the country's diverse regions.

August 20

Street Beat

Pick up the rhythms of the street! An "urbanized journey through percussion," Street Beat mixes drumming and dance with turntablism. Two drummers and two street dancers make household items -- auto parts, water drums, trash cans, paint buckets -- into instruments, fusing original rhythms with hip hop moves.

August 27

Lisa Haley & the Zydekats

Spend a morning in Bayou country. Spreading joy with their infectious high-energy musical romps are Grammy® Nominee Lisa Haley and the Zydekats. The band's American/Cajun/Zydeco rhythms, traditional stylings and original songs are an authentic Louisiana experience.
