

Hello Ford Amphitheatre 2009 season participants. To help increase awareness of our venue and our season, as well as your own Ford performance, we'd like you to send a message to your email list. Anytime in the next week would be great. Tickets to all events are now on sale on line.

Here's some suggested text for you.

(Your organization's name) is excited to be a part of the Ford Amphitheatre's 2009 season. The Ford is an historic outdoor theatre nestled in the Hollywood Hills across the 101 freeway from the Hollywood Bowl. The amphitheatre provides an intimate space for dance, music, theatre and film aficionados alike. You'll experience our show closer than you could imagine in an outdoor amphitheatre, because no seat is further than 96 feet from the stage! We are proud and happy to be appearing in such a beautiful venue and hope you'll join us on (your performance date here) when we perform under the stars.

The very best way to stay up-to-date on all the events at the Ford is to sign up for the Ford's email list. Go to www.FordTheatres.org – the source for complete Ford season information - and click "Sign up Now" on the homepage.

Please copy Productions Marketing Manager, Priscilla Jaworski – pjaworski@arts.lacounty.gov - on your email to your list so we know you've sent it. We appreciate your introducing the Ford to your email list.

Thank you!
